

I'm a listener & financial supporter of K-Love in Klamath Falls, OR. which is heard at 88.1 FM. A concern about LPFM stations being given priority over well established radio programs for our community is not right. This station is a positive alternative, and the message is love. This theme is greatly needed and seen as a public interest.